QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Protection to retrenched or reverted Employees in Community Projects or Land Reforms Schemes due to Reorganisation of States.

Q.—982. Sri BASANGOWDA (Lingsugur).—

Will the Government be pleased to state :—

whether the Government has ordered retrenchment or reversion of employees in community projects and land reforms schemes whose services and salaries were to be protected according to the decision taken by the Government due to the Reorganisation of States ?

A.—Sri S. NIJALINGAPPA (Chief Minister).—

Tungabhadra Community Project and Gulbarga Community Project have completed their normal period of operation by 31st March 1957 and have been reverted on N.E.S. staffing pattern with effect from 1st April 1957 as per the instruction of the M.C.D., New Delhi. Due to this, the surplus staff had to be retrenched with effect from 1st April 1957. However, technical staff like Village Level Workers, Social Education Organisers, Supervisers have been absorbed in other Blocks whenever vacancies were available. Further the Public Health Department has taken over the institutions along with the staff and so also the Arts and Crafts Centres have been taken over by the Rural Industrialisation Department.

A few ministerial and inferior servants could not be absorbed for want of vacancies. Even in their case the Divisional Commissioner has been requested to consider their cases for absorption in the new Blocks allotted to the area.

Sri G. ANNA RAO.—May I know the number retrenched and the number reverted ?

Sri R. M. DODMANE HEGDE (Deputy Minister for Planning and Development).—For that I want notice.

Sri G. ANNA RAO.—Among the retrenched, how many have got substantive posts and how many of them have temporary posts ?

Sri R. M. DODMANE HEGDE.—To be exact, Sir, that question, in my opinion, does not arise. The question is whether Government have ordered retrenchment and reversion.

Sri G. ANNA RAO.—Does it not arise sir ?

Mr. SPEAKER.—I would request the Hon'ble Deputy Minister to give the information if he has got it.

Sri R. M. DODMANE HEGDE.—I require notice.
